The following individuals have put their names forward as nominees to LITE's board:

Wilson Fink

Wilson Fink is Research Technician in the Natural Systems Agriculture Lab at the University of Manitoba. He completed a Bachelor of Science in Agroecology and has experience working in the both the public and private sector. His informal interests include the environment, economics, and sociology. Originally from a small Saskatchewan town, Wilson has fallen in love with Winnipeg and now calls it home.

Carmyn Pepler

Carmyn grew up in the inner city and spent her teenage years volunteering in her community; Andrew's Street Family Centre, Pritchard Playground Drop, and more recently, United Way's fundraising. Carmyn is now the VP, Player Service for Western Canada Lottery Corporation. She lives with her husband and two young kids in Oakbank and loves being outside. Carmyn also volunteers on the board of St. Rafael Wellness Centre, and is passionate about organizations that work with people to take control of their life by providing supports to reach their goals.

Paul Tascona

Paul practices business law with a focus on mergers and acquisitions as well as aircraft acquisitions and financings. He has experience advising both private and public companies on transactions involving businesses in a variety of industries, including aviation, insurance/financial services, healthcare, manufacturing and transportation. In his spare time, Paul enjoys travelling and spending time with his friends, family and cat, Jax.

Shakti Vyjayanthi

Shakti is an enthusiastic business professional with a software development background. She completed her MBA from the Asper School of Business with a specialization in Marketing, Sustainability, and Supply Chain Management. Shakti has always been very outgoing and has been involved with the community since 2013. She is passionate about poverty reduction and is eager to apply her skills toward the betterment of society.

The following board member is seeking re-election:

Eric Grabner

Eric is a founding partner and financial planner of New Outlook Wealth. Eric is a long-time volunteer with the Winnipeg Humane Society and the United Way of Winnipeg. Eric has served as a board member of LITE since 2017.
